

About the ATA School

Our Mission

The ATA school is an informal educational program offered by TAFSUS as a service to the Turkish-American community in the greater Philadelphia area. Its primary goal is to teach Turkish language and culture to children and adults. In addition to basic language skills in speaking, reading, writing and comprehension, the curriculum includes Turkish history, geography, government, literature, music, theater, holiday traditions and social customs.

The ATA school encourages diversity among its teachers and students and does not have any social, political or religious affiliation.

ATA SCHOOL

Bringing Turkish and American communities together through language and cultural education

ATA school is established by TAFSUS, a non-profit organization established in 1966 to promote better understanding and friendship between the Turkish and American communities through educational, cultural and social activities.

ATA School Program

Classes are offered to children and adults starting age 3. Learning takes place in a fun, yet structured environment where students are encouraged to work on creative projects and to socialize with each other, further developing their language skills.

Program includes:

- Language: Speaking, reading, writing, grammar
- Social studies: History, geography, government, etc.
- Culture: Art, music, theater, holiday traditions, customs, etc.

Classes meet on Sundays between 1:00 pm to 3:30pm., starting from October 4, 2009 to May 16, 2010 at Montgomery County Community College, Blue Bell, PA.
